kosher salt	1 tsp
black pepper (cracked)	1/2 tsp
ground cumin	1/4 tsp
garlic powder	1/4 tsp
distilled vinegar	2 tbsps
fresh thyme (leaves removed from stem)	2 sprig
pork tenderloin	20 oz
Nonstick cooking spray	1

Directions

- 1 Preheat oven to 400°F.
- 2 Grab your blender to make the mojo marinade. Add oranges, lemons, salt, pepper, cumin, garlic powder, vinegar, and fresh thyme leaves into the blender. Pulsate the mixture 4 times, then purée for 1 minute. Set aside 4 ounces mojo and add the rest to a resealable plastic bag.
- 3 Remove the silver skin from the pork tenderloin. Add pork tenderloin to the resealable plastic bag with the mojo. Marinate pork for at least 20 minutes in the fridge.
- 4 Remove the pork tenderloin from the bag (discarding the marinade in the bag) and pat dry with a paper towel. Preheat an ovenproof sauté pan over medium heat, spray with nonstick cooking spray, and wait 10 seconds for oil to come up to temperature. Brown both sides of pork tenderloin in the pan, then place pan in the oven for 15-20 minutes. Internal temperature of cooked pork should read 145°F.
- 5 Remove pork from oven and let it rest for a few minutes so juices redistribute. Drizzle some of the reserved mojo marinade on the pork, and serve.

Hass avocado (sliced)	2 oz
deli turkey (low-sodium, sliced)	1 1/2 oz
